Change in Viva Wine Groups management team

Viva Wine Groups COO Nordics, Anna Möller, has at her own request decided to leave her role in the company and thus the management team. Anna will be available to the company during a handover period.

Viva Wine Groups CEO Emil Sallnäs comments: "During her years with the company, Anna has played a central part in developing our operations in the Nordics and our culture in the group as a whole. We would like to sincerely thank Anna for her great commitment and important contributions during this time and wish her all the best in the future."
